JOINT ADMISSION PROGRAM

Waldorf University and North Iowa Area Community College (NIACC) are pleased to offer a Joint Admission Program. Under this agreement, students may apply for and be admitted to NIACC with the ability to transfer to Waldorf University seamlessly.

TO PARTICIPATE IN THE JOINT ADMISSIONS PROGRAM, STUDENTS WILL BE REQUIRED TO:

// Complete the NIACC admissions process

// Meet NIACC admission requirements

// Complete this application for the Joint Admission Program

// Allow the exchange of student academic information between NIACC and Waldorf University

// Notify Waldorf University by March of their sophomore year if they plan to transfer to Waldorf University or withdraw from the Joint Admission Program

// Complete the Waldorf University verification form to ensure compliance with admission requirements

Transfer to Waldorf will be contingent upon the completion of an associates degree at NIACC, with a minimum GPA of 2.0. Students must fulfill the degree requirements of each institution in order to receive an associates degree and a bachelor's degree.

BENEFITS OF THE JOINT ADMISSION PROGRAM:

// NIACC and Waldorf University will provide academic advising regarding programs and degree requirements.

// Waldorf University will register students on the NIACC campus in late spring of their sophomore year.

// Students will receive a $1,000 scholarship upon their successful transfer to Waldorf University.

// Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society members receive a $2,000 scholarship

// Waldorf will offer one free course during the sophomore year at NIACC for students in the program.

// While attending NIACC, a Waldorf ID card will be provided for participation in Waldorf University activities.
