Music Camp FAQ

Dear Waldorf College Student,

Join us for the 2010 Waldorf College Music Camp, Monday Aug. 23-Friday, Aug. 27. Waldorf College has long enjoyed the reputation for excellence in music. Our choral and instrumental ensembles are internationally acclaimed and we look forward to another exciting season of touring and performance.

Music is a lifelong gift and we invite you to share your talents with friends and colleagues at Waldorf College through our ensembles-the Waldorf Wind Symphony, Jazz Band, Brass/Woodwind ensembles, Sangkor Women's Ensemble, Waldorf Choir or the St. Christopher Chorale. Music Camp is required for all students who wish to participate in an ensemble.

What happens at camp?

Plan for a highly engaged week of rehearsals mixed with a host of fun social events. Auditions and placements for the Waldorf Wind Symphony, Waldorf Choir, St. Christopher Chorale and Sangkor will be held on the last day of camp. The formal audition schedule for placement in choirs and bands will be posted during camp and auditions will cover the music studied that week. The combined vocal and instrumental ensembles will perform for the student body at Opening Convocation on Monday, August 30th.

What is the schedule?

You will receive the complete schedule for instrumental and choral rehearsals when you check into camp. A preliminary schedule can be found at www.waldorf.edu/Music-Camp.

How do I register?

For convenience, this fee will be charge directly to your student account in the business office. Any student registering for camp after the July 15th deadline will pay a late registration fee of $65.
