Journey through the music of the Mediterranean with Baladino, a fresh Israeli world music ensemble. Hear centuries-old melodies and revel in sounds carried to Israel from Spain, Eastern Europe, Turkey, and Arabic countries. The ensemble members effortlessly blend these far-ranging musical influences with authenticity and conviction possible only by those who have grown up in the cultural melting pot that is Israel.

Shiau-uen Ding
Pianist

Called a "daredevil" by The New York Times, pianist Shiau-uen Ding brings to the Forest City audience music from the early eighteenth to late twentieth century, with Bach's lavish use of chromaticism; Beethoven's swings between sweetness and drama; Liszt's picturesque tours of heaven, inferno, and love; Schoenberg's invention of the twelve-tone method; and Ferneyhough's complex yet profound, shimmering colors.

Eulenspiegel Puppets
Performance of Prokofieff's
Peter and the Wolf

Listen to Prokofieff's beloved music as you watch Peter outsmart the wolf! Eulenspiegel Puppets use beautifully crafted large tabletop puppets and rod puppets to tell this classic tale of a young boy, his grandfather, his pets, and the creatures that live in the meadow and the forest. This piece was written by Sergei Prokofieff in 1936 to cultivate musical taste in children and to introduce them to the instruments in the orchestra. It's still a favorite for youth concerts all over the world.
