SERIES

WORLD-CLASS
PERFORMANCE
IN FOREST CITY, IOWA

American Boychoir

The American Boychoir has dazzled audiences with its unique blend of musical sophistication, spirited presentation, and ensemble virtuosity since its founding in 1937. Boys fourth through eighth grades, reflecting the ethnic, religious and cultural diversity of the United States, come from across the country and around the world to pursue a rigorous musical and academic curriculum at the American Boychoir School in Princeton, New Jersey. Under the leadership of Artistic Director Fernando Malvar-Ruiz, the American Boy choir has long been recognized as one of the finest musical ensembles in the country.

Nov. 3, 2016 7 p.m.
Immanuel Lutheran Church

Marc Schreiner

Tenor

Brooklyn-based American Artist Marc Schreiner has thrilled audiences around the globe with his work in the Performing Arts. As an Operatic tenor he has performed leading roles in over 30 companies in the U.S. and Europe. His performance work also has included Theater, Modern Dance, Film, Cirque, and Burlesque, as a performer and as a producer and director. Never one to walk the beaten path, Mr. Schreiner also actively works in the Visual Arts as a Photographer, Designer, Stylist, and fabricator.

A graduate of Simpson College in Indianola, Marc is very pleased to be back in Iowa collaborating with Pianist/Composer Bryan Stanley on this recital of favorite European Art Songs, exploring themes of desire, loss, and transformation in works spanning over 400 years.

Sept. 8, 2016 7 p.m. Odvin Hagen Recital Hall

Anda Union*

Mongolian throat singers

Anda Union's thoroughly addictive combination of Mongolian musical styles is a reflection of their roots. Hailing from differing ethnic nomadic cultures the nine strong band unite tribal and music traditions from all over Inner Mongolia. Anda Union bring a wide range of musical instruments and vocal styles together in a fusion that Genghis Khan himself would have been proud of. Keenly aware of the threat to the Grasslands and their age old Mongolian culture, Anda Union are driven by their fight for the survival of this endangered way of life, by keeping the essence of the music alive.

Feb. 23, 2017
7 p.m.
Immanuel Lutheran Church

Paul Schrage

Classical and jazz pianist

This recital has something for everybody. In the first half, pianist Paul Schrage performs works by Beethoven and Chopin. Then, Paul is joined by bassist Graydon Peterson and drummer Mac Santiago for an electrifying set.

March 16, 2017 7 p.m.
Odvin Hagen Recital Hall

Lorraine Klaasen*

Folk singer from South Africa

Born and raised in Soweto, Lorraine has electrified audiences worldwide with her dynamic stage presence and showmanship. A 2013 JUNO winner for World Music Album of the Year, Lorraine is the daughter of legendary South African jazz singer Thandie Klaasen, and was influenced by South Africa's music giants of the 1950s and 1960s such as Miriam Makeba, Dolly Rathebe, Dorothy Masuka, Sophie Mgcina, and Busi Mhlongo.

Her newest album, Nouvelle Journee, features new musical styles with songs in the Tsonga, Sotho, isiZulu, and Xhosa languages of South Africa, as well as in English and French. The songs are thought-provoking and touch on the importance of family, empathy, love, and hope.

Oct. 20, 2016 7 p.m.
Immanuel Lutheran Church

Ronn McFarlane & Ayreheart

Renaissance, Celtic and Bluegrass music

Ayreheart performs historical music from the British Isles with two lutes, voice, colascione, and percussion. You'll hear dances and songs of John Dowland, William Byrd, anonymous folk tunes, and Medieval carols from England, Scotland, and Wales, showing the parallels between high art music and folk music.
