

Job Posting

Head Men's and Women's Bowling Coach

March 5, 2010

Description:

Waldorf College in Forest City, Iowa seeks candidates for the full-time position of Head Men's and Women's Bowling Coach. These are newly established programs with a Fall of 2010 start. The position includes coaching duties, recruitment of student-athletes, planning, organizing and evaluating of all phases of a competitive NAIA program.

Qualifications:

The ideal candidate will have a commitment to the mission of Waldorf College and be committed to the development of the student-athlete physically, mentally, spiritually and morally. The candidate must also demonstrate the ability and desire to direct and motivate student-athletes to succeed academically and athletically.

Timeline:

Review of applications will begin immediately. Recruiting duties will begin immediately upon hire.

Application:

Send letter of application and resume to: Head Men's and Women's Bowling Coach Search, Waldorf College, 106 S 6th St, Forest City, IA 50436 or e-mail to humanresources@waldorf.edu

For more information:

More information about Waldorf College can be obtained at www.waldorf.edu.

Waldorf College is a 4-year private college offering 14 majors with over 30 emphases. Waldorf's academic programs combine a strong liberal arts base with applied learning. Co-curricular programs ranging from the second oldest a cappella choir in the nation, to an outstanding theater program, to highly competitive athletic teams, provide students with a wide range of opportunities for meaningful participation and personal development. Waldorf is committed to engaging its students in service and in bringing the world to its students through international student recruitment and study-abroad programs. Every student is challenged to excel in Waldorf's community where students are treated with dignity and respect. The College has an attractive campus with fourteen major buildings and excellent technology resources.